

20th Annual Epsilon Gamma Golf Outing

By Jon Eadie '93 and Mike Wharton '93, golf outing co-chairmen

We are just about five weeks from teeing it up for the 20th Annual Golf Outing. Be it the "Alumni" Outing, Carl "The Assistant Greenskeeper" Open or the EG Alumni Association Golf outing, for two decades it has provided brothers, alumni, and the friends of EG a chance to golf, eat and socialize.

Through June 1 we have had a great response. We look forward to seeing as many of you as possible at Whispering Pines in Pinckney July 11, 2009 at 12:00.

Chapter Update

By John Klapchuk '09, chapter public relations chairman

Summer is here, but the Betas are already planning for the Fall. Many of the brothers are hard at work planning for the Fall 2009 recruitment season.

The Men of Principle Grant (formerly known as Recruitment Through Scholarship or RTS) is now available for any non-Greek CMU mail. Students can apply at www.cmuscholarship.com before the September 1 deadline.

The brothers are also planning to hold a summer recruitment event in July. Further plans have yet to be finalized.

Recruitment for many Fraternities consists of a one to two week "rush" period where groups try to discern between many men as to whom they want to offer a bid. This isn't a sound practice because it is impossible to truly know a person well enough after meeting them one time to offer them a bid.

However, Beta Theta Pi is not one of those groups. Our Fraternity uses a method known as 365-recruitment, a method which spreads our energy and resources over the entire year rather than a short two week period. This allows us to continually meet new people throughout the school year and summer and really get to know them before inviting them to join our Fraternal brotherhood.

One of the other important things our Beta Theta Pi does, the Epsilon Gamma Chapter especially, is rely on input from our alumni. As such, if there is any alum who knows of a man they feel has the qualities of Beta and will be attending CMU this upcoming year, please send his information to Recruitment Chair John Klapchuk, Central Michigan '10, at klapc1je@cmich.edu or feel free to call 269.462.0341.
